

Mission

The mission of Hays CISD, an innovative community of learners that values the diversity and legacy of the people, is to nurture students to become extraordinary citizens through unique, personal educational experiences.

Hays CISD Learner Profile

In Hays CISD, all students will graduate with the knowledge and skills necessary to become extraordinary citizens.

The Hays CISD learner is:

Academically prepared for college, career, and life

- Masters rigorous content and acquires knowledge
- Engages in a broad, relevant curriculum
- Applies knowledge to real life situations
- Integrates technology with learning, communicating and working
- Thinks critically and creatively
- Intellectually curious
- Life-long learner
- Demonstrates the ability to problem solve

An effective communicator and collaborator

- Listens, speaks, reads, and writes effectively
- Engages in meaningful discourse
- Presents ideas and information clearly and effectively
- Works with others in leadership and collaborative roles

Globally competent and competitive

- Possesses a diverse and knowledgeable world view
- Exhibits cross-cultural sensitivity and adaptability
- Communicates effectively in at least one language other than English
- Interprets and responds to global issues with an understanding of how history, geography, government, and economics shape our world

Prepared for life and citizenship

- Serves and contributes to the community
- Displays effort, resilience and persistence
- Exhibits a strong work ethic
- Exercises fiscal responsibility
- Demonstrates confidence and self-advocacy