

Mark your calendars for
National School Lunch Week!

NATIONAL School Lunch

President John F. Kennedy created National School Lunch Week (NSLW) in 1962. During this annual weeklong celebration, students around the country celebrate in their cafeterias with decorations, special menus, events, and more. Join us this month for a great celebration!

#NSLW

Use this hashtag for your National School Lunch Week social media posts

Did You Know? facts about school lunch

-  School lunch provides a balanced meal that provides 1/3 of the nutrients most children need.
-  Kids with healthier eating patterns have better academic performance.
-  School lunches have a variety of vegetables that help kids get the nutrients and fiber they need.
-  Whole grains have vitamins, minerals, and fiber to help students feel fuller longer and help them concentrate.
-  Milk is provided daily to supply calcium, protein, and vitamin D to help build strong bones and teeth.

“This institution is an equal opportunity provider.”